PRESS-KIT 2026

Guieldu en el Festival Internacional do Mundo Celta de Ortigueira.

CELTIC MUSIC · PROGRESSIVE FOLK · NEW AGE

Guieldu is an iconic Asturian band at the forefront of the contemporary Celtic scene. Standing at the crossroads of genres, their sound boldly merges progressive folk, New Age electronic textures, and soaring folk-rock with subtle touches of funk and smooth jazz.

Their repertoire focuses heavily on original compositions, deeply rooted in the traditional music of Northwestern Iberia and the rich sounds of the Atlantic Arc's Celtic Nations. The result is a bold, unmistakably signature sound.

UN ESTILO ÚNICO

Guieldu bucks current minimalist trends with a full seven-piece lineup, crafting a sweeping interceltic soundscape. The band bridges the gap between the traditions of the Atlantic finisterres—deeply rooted in their native Asturias—and modern innovation, blending retro-leaning electronic textures, rock energy, funk grooves, jazz syncopation, and progressive sophistication.

For lovers of Celtic music's golden age, Guieldu's sound pays vibrant homage to iconic bands like Capercaillie, Clannad, and Wolfstone. For younger audiences, it delivers a fresh, captivating live experience. While grounded in traditional roots, Guieldu's repertoire consists entirely of original compositions and meticulously crafted arrangements.

Creators of music, dreamers of dreams.

Born at the height of the pandemic in 2020, Guieldu came to life against all odds. Driven not by corporate backing or big industry sponsors, but by pure talent, sheer tenacity, and an unwavering drive to connect directly with the hearts of their audience.

PREMIOS AMAS 2023 ET 2024 :

The band was honored with the Asturian Music AMAS Award for Best Folk Song for "L'Aremu" in 2023, and secured the title once again in 2024 with "Perdayuri."

FINALIST AT THE PRESTIGIOUS "RUNAS" COMPETITION

As a finalist in the "Runas" contest at the prestigious Festival Internacional do Mundo Celta d'Ortigueira, Guieldu left a lasting impression with a dazzling concert, demonstrating the full power of their stage presence.

COMPONENTES

Héctor Aneiros

RAudiovisual director (and creator of the award-winning music video for "La Lienda" by the folk group D'urria), this self-taught multi-instrumentalist has been passionate about Celtic music from a young age, founding his first band at just fourteen. As Guieldu's primary songwriter and arranger, he shapes the group's signature sound through flutes, whistles, ocarinas, and bagpipes. Over the course of his career, he has also performed live as a guest artist with the legendary Galician band Luar na Lubre.

Susana Sors

Holding a degree in sociocultural anthropology and currently pursuing a PhD in the anthropology of music, she began her musical training in classical guitar at the Gijón Conservatory before refining her vocal technique under the guidance of Mapi Quintana and Ruth Suárez. In Guieldu, she serves as the lead vocalist and acoustic guitarist, while also directing the vocal harmonies and choir arrangements.

COMPONENTES

Carmen Tomé

Holding a Master's degree in Classical Violin Performance (2009) and a Master's degree in Education (2011), she further specialized in contemporary music and jazz at the Centro Superior de Música Creativa. A dedicated, exceptional violinist who has built her entire professional career around her instrument, she has shared the stage with internationally acclaimed artists such as Ara Malikian, Shakira, and Víctor Manuel. A former member of the Film Symphony Orchestra, she now shapes Guieldu's melodious fiddle lines.

Jorge Álvarez

Holding a degree in history and working professionally as an archaeologist, he picked up the guitar at a young age through private training before diving into folk, traditional, and early music percussion. It was during a stay in Scotland that he reconnected with stringed instruments, mastering the Irish bouzouki and mandolin while immersing himself in Edinburgh's famous pub jam sessions. Upon returning to Spain in the summer of 2020, he joined Guieldu, where he brings these two instruments to life alongside the electric guitar.

COMPONENTES

Laura Méndez

An Electrical Engineering student at the University of Oviedo, he brings a solid classical foundation to the band, having completed his professional piano studies at the Avilés Conservatory in 2019. Despite his young age, he has already built a rich musical background across numerous choral and instrumental ensembles before joining Guieldu in late 2019.

At the keyboards, he manages the synthesizers and emulations of legendary vintage gear, including iconic models like the Korg Wavestation, Roland D-50, Yamaha DX7, and the essential Korg M1.

Pablo Santamarta

A multi-faceted artist, Pablo holds a degree in history and works as a graphic designer. Playing bass since the age of thirteen, he built extensive experience across diverse musical genres—from death metal and country to progressive rock—performing in both Spain and the United Kingdom.

In Guieldu, he lays down the electric bass lines, serving as a core foundation that defines one of the key signatures of the band's identity.

COMPONENTES

Rubén Cadenas

A public servant by profession and a senior audio engineer, he took up the drums at age fifteen and has never looked back. Former drummer for the folk group Deua Dubra —a formation produced by the Fonoastur label that toured internationally, notably performing at the prestigious Festival Interceltique de Lorient— he brings extensive stage experience to Guieldu. Within the band, he combines his passion for drums and percussion with his expertise in electronic music production, audio recording, and mixing.

Guieldu en directo

Staging and sound design take center stage at Guieldu's concerts, immersing audiences in a dynamic, vibrant, and powerful emotional journey. The repertoire seamlessly shifts between high-energy, danceable numbers infused with fast-paced Celtic rock, and spellbinding ballads rooted in pure Celtic tradition, rich with progressive and New Age nuances.

Guieldu delivers a versatile live show featuring all-original material, tailored to fit any venue: from massive open-air festivals designed to unleash maximum energy, to theaters and auditoriums where the Asturian band crafts an intimate, evocative atmosphere without losing a beat of their drive.

Adaptation Highlights:

Guieldu brings together a broad and diverse audience. The band is an essential booking for Celtic, folk, and world music festivals—especially for events looking for raw stage energy that can truly rally a crowd. Yet, thanks to its rich, multi-layered musical fusion, the band delivers a captivating show that resonates just as powerfully with rock audiences and the indie culture scene.
